YARRA ROOM

The Yarra Room offers possibly the best views along Southbank. This expansive space is private from the main dining room, ensuring no event interruptions thanks to our arrival landing. Available in different configurations, the versatile Yarra Room is the ideal space for corporate events from breakfast to dinner or cocktail events.

During the day, natural light floods the room with unsurpassed views of the Yarra River and the Melbourne City Skyline; this panorama becomes even more magical at night, allowing events to be set against a backdrop of Melbourne's vibrant nightlife. Tasmanian wood panelling and our extensive collection of Tasmanian wine line the walls, adding warmth to the space.

Built-in audio visual, including in-room audio, microphones and a large LCD TV, are included at no additional charge.

The floor-to-ceiling windows provide uninterrupted views of Southbank, the Yarra River, and Melbourne's Skyline. The open kitchen adds to the atmosphere of this versatile space, which can be configured for larger tables across the main floor or for tables of six to ten throughout.

The Dining Room can be hired standalone or as part of the Yarra and Southbank Rooms. The Yarra Room is the perfect addition for pre-event canapes for large groups.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

ETHICAL | SUSTINABLE | PROVENANCE

Since April 2004, Pure South Dining has been championing farm to plate dining, years before MasterChef made this a buzzword amongst the Melbourne culinary scene.

We have forged relationships with farmers, local fishermen, and small producers who live on the land, supporting generations of Tasmanian farming long before we opened our doors to Melbourne. Our chefs don't order from wholesalers who claim to know where their produce is sourced. We call our Tassie Family to order the best available produce and then have it flown to our Southbank kitchen.

Due to our unique relationships, menus can change based on what produce can be sent to us. We do not substitute or compromise when produce isn't available or seasons change. Executive Chef David Hall understands and respects this produce, using decades of experience to carefully craft our offering while paying homage to our Tassie Family.

The bottom half shows a dark plate with a piece of golden-brown fried fish, likely cod, garnished with a small purple herb. The fish is surrounded by a creamy sauce and small, dark, round items, possibly olives or capers.
