Menu

Our menu is derived from relationships with ethical, sustainable, premium farmers and fishermen of Tasmania, King Island, Flinders Island and the surrounding seas. Due to the nature of the Pure South Dining ethos, our menu relies on the seasons and the natural elements that affect farmers and fishermen, and so late changes may be unavoidable

Fireworks in the city

City of Melbourne has confirmed fireworks will be from the rooftops of buildings all over the the city, aimed at an audience along the Yarra River corridor. Pure South Dining is in the ideal location to lap up the spectacle. Diners on the window have 'pole position', but everyone has a view.

9:30pm Yarra Park, focussed on the parks around the MCG and along the Yarra River.

Midnight Melbourne Rooftop Firework Display

Carparking

Wilson Southgate Carpark is in the same building as Pure South Dining - Southgate Ave

Wilson Eureka Carpark is 100 metres from Pure South Dining - Southgate Avenue

Long waits have been observed in previous years when exiting.

Public Transport

Public Transport runs free on New Years Eve all night in Melbourne. Melbourne's Public Transport hub is Flinders St Station, 80 metres from Pure South Dining; directly across the river by foot bridge.
